

June 10th
2016

Arbez Hussein ^{Great} Expectations

It means that he is trying to get the reader to feel what the situation is. Which is saying that the day is moving on very slowly and the weather is dreadful.

I set off by the early morning coach before it was
It means when the weather is cold and damp and the day goes very slowly.

yet light, and was out on the open country road

when the day came creeping on, halting and → connotation and simile

whimpering and shivering, and wrapped in patches of cloud and rags of mist, like a beggar.

Look for Denotation + Connotation.

Denotation - literal meaning

Connotation - Associations that are connected to the word.

Simile - comparing something by comparing it to something else.

Metaphor - Make a comparison between 2 people, things, animals or places.